October 2023

Well it's the season of mellow fruitfulness again and back to winter weight duvets...but who knows what next week will bring weatherwise? One thing we can be certain of though is that the apples in the community orchard are ripening and so we can look forward to another Ide Apple Day on Saturday 21 October (see pages 2 and 4). Articles for the November issue of the Ide Times should be sent to me, Ann Boyce, annboyce@talk21.com (01392 213011) by the 20th October please.

Weir Meadow Playing Field

Sports pitches

The meadow has been transformed! Ed Mortimer undertook the initial phase of ground preparation; and the phase 2 works – spring tining, power harrowing and drilling, rolling, liming and fertilizing – then smoothing the ground before sowing the seed bed, were undertaken by Sam Burdick of County Grounds Maintenance.

Sports pitch grade grass seed was spread and rolled on 6 September. Already the meadow is green with new grass. Notices have been put in place to ask people to stick to the path round the edge, and keep dogs tight on the lead, so that the new seed can fully germinate and the grass become established. Special thanks go to Peter Skinner for co-ordinating the phases so enthusiastically and expertly.

Meadow Entrance

The ditch inside the entrance has been repaired. Soil was removed and rubble rolled in as infill, to provide a level and strong entrance area. The materials were supplied free of charge by BT Jenkins and the groundwork undertaken by Bob Lowton. The pile of soil remaining was levelled out starting with some back breaking spade and barrow work by volunteers, and finished with the arrival of James Romain and a tractor from Whiddon Farm. Thankyou to all involved.

Pedestrian Bridge

The restoration of the old pedestrian bridge is now complete, with the help of a donation of £2100 from the Ide Twinning Association - recently wound up. Bob Lowton and his team repaired the structural stone work underneath the bridge in July; and Will Bosworth installed the beautiful oak posts and rails over the bridge at the end of August. We are grateful to Will for giving his time for free, while we supplied the materials.

We also thank Ide Rugby Club for their generous donation of £952.20 following the club's recent winding up. We will plant a tree with a plaque in Oak Bank to mark this.

Community Orchard

IDE APPLE DAY is on Saturday 21 October 2023, 11am to 3pm. Please see the separate arrangements in this magazine and posters around the village. We will be harvesting apples, pressing and bottling juice from the orchard on this day.

Everyone is welcome to join in: there will be other activities going on at the same time that are family friendly.

We are planning two talks over the autumn, themed around the Orchard: one from the RSPB about birdlife in Devon orchards, and another from Sandford Cider about cider orchards.

Thank you to everyone who has worked so hard on the Management Group over the last few months.

Allotments

The Parish Council provides eight allotment garden plots, located behind Ide School. We currently have one vacant plot, available to rent under annual licence, at a cost of £39.37 per annum. If you live in Ide and would be interested in renting this plot, please contact Mel Liversage, Ide Parish Clerk, on ideparishclerk@gmail.com or telephone 01392 259024.

Flood avoidance With autumn now here and its fall of leaves and other debris, the Emergency Planning Working Group advise residents to keep gratings and roadside gutters clear outside their houses to avoid flash flooding. We have sandbags stored in the portacabin in the car park and in the Huntsman carpark.

Planning Matters

Pynes Farm Yard

The Planning Committee heard details of Heritage Homes' plans for Pynes Farm Yard at its meeting in public on 20 September, ahead of the developer's submission of a new full planning application. Heritage Homes now own the site. The key element of the existing permission remains: ten houses, with two of them being affordable homes. A survey of the existing buildings shows the stone walls are cracked, the cob is crumbling, and they will have to be pulled down. The new scheme includes a small strip of scrub at the top of the site, allowing a better green space. The new design allows more space for each house, and ditching the retaining walls of the original scheme. The design will use handmade bricks, cedar cladding, and barn-like tall windows, with zero carbon insulation and heating systems. The committee was impressed with the improvements over the old scheme, and looks forward to seeing the details of the application once it is submitted.

Pynes Farm House

The Church Commissioners have decided to sell the Farm House unoccupied, rather than rent it out. It will appear on the market soon, we understand.

IDE COMMUNITY ORCHARD

Autumn is in the air in Ide Community Orchard. The apples are hanging heavily in the trees, the mornings are cooler and the nights are drawing in - as any late afternoon walker or dog will testify.

James Romain was kind enough to cut the grass on the paths and around the seats recently. We're hoping they feel more attractive places to sit if you're not having to battle through long grass to get to them.

We've an Apple Day coming up on Saturday 21st October where you'll get the chance to have your apples juiced. The finished product will only be good for a few days as it won't be pasteurised - but at least you'll know where the apples are from! Watch out for more details soon. Don't forget the apples are there to be picked - so please help yourself when you're up there.

IDE COMMUNITY SHOP AND POST OFFICE

We have a new line in the shop : Bamboo Socks at a special introductory offer price of £5 a pair, a wide range of designs and patterns available. They are already proving to be very popular and make an ideal present as so light to post, or pop into a Christmas stocking. For those of you who like to start your Christmas Shopping early we have some lovely tins of Christmas biscuits and scented candles in stock.

With traffic problems getting worse and worse and parking charges always rising, don't forget you can use the Post office for depositing and drawing out cash at no cost to yourselves but commission for the shop, so it is win win.

Regarding parking please can we politely ask again that the Post Office space alongside the village hall is left clear as we need to be able to pull in and access alarms or ring in deliveries, sincere thank you for your help on this.

We are delighted to welcome two more volunteers to TeamShop, Patrick and Debs Irvine and are looking forward to working with them over the coming months.

Please can you check the size of your letters and cards if you leave them on the Post Office Counter when we are shut. We have had several left again lately that have had insufficient postage on, as they have been slightly larger than a standard letter or slightly thicker and we have had to make up the postage from shop funds. We are not meant to do this so please can you check the size carefully or call in when we are open, thank you for your help with this.

Just a reminder the Post Office closes at 5pm and so if you need your post to go that day you need to have it with us before this time, especially as we get very very busy with the businesses coming in nearer to post office closing. Any post received after 4.40pm is meant to go the next day on Post office Guidelines, so please do post as early as you can – again thank you for your help on this.

Sorry, lots of requests for help in this month's article. Finally, can we please ask that you don't leave books on top of the bookcase outside of the shop if there is no space to fit them in. The books get damaged and tatty, and that is such a shame. If there is no space to fit them in tidily and in a nice order, please take them into the shop where we will keep them clean and tidy and feed them on to the books shelves as there is space.

Thank you for all your help on these things and thank you for supporting your local community shop so well – we have such fantastic and lovely customers – we are so blessed.

Mindfulness Based Living.

Mindfulness has become a popular subject in recent years, with the word “Mindful” now part of our everyday vocabulary. Many children are taught mindfulness techniques at school and mindfulness is often encouraged in the workplace as a way of enhancing mental wellbeing and happiness within the working environment. But what exactly is mindfulness? The pioneer of modern mindfulness – Jon Kabat Zinn defines mindfulness as

“The means of paying attention in a particular way, on purpose, in the present moment, and non-judgmentally. This kind of awareness nurtures greater awareness, clarity, and acceptance of present moment reality. It wakes us up to the fact that our lives unfold only in moments. If we are not fully present for many of these moments, we may not only miss what is most valuable in our lives but also fail to realise the richness and the depth of our possibilities for growth and transformation. It is... a turning towards life.... To live life as if each moment is important, as if each moment counted and could be worked with, even if it is a moment of pain, sadness, despair, or fear. – Jon Kabat Zinn.

If you would like to find out more why not come along to an introductory evening on Tuesday 19th September? The course starts on Tuesday 3rd October and will run on Tuesday evenings until 21st of November from 6.30-9.00 pm.

JUBILEE CLUB

It was good to get back together on September 4th, the atmosphere that afternoon was of fun and light-hearted interchange between members. Tony was in charge of the bingo calling, Peggy selling the cards and Mandy the runner, what a team! It was necessary to sit Peggy beside Tony to make sure she didn't misshear the numbers called, prize money at stake.!

Anne Browning went home with a bunch of flowers for a special birthday. We missed Liz who is not well and Diane whose husband is in hospital. Christine was kept busy taking names for the planned outing.

We were kept on tenterhooks leading up to the trip to Dartmouth, with at one time a full bus, as the weather started to not have got the message that the Jubilee Club had an outing planned empty seats were plentiful. Yes I know some were genuine reasons to cancel. However 32 stalwart folk joined us for an excellent day out.

The sun shone as we set off on The Kingswear Castle paddle ship, which following a refit had only returned to service in July this year. She uses 1/2 a ton of Welsh coal every day to power the engine which dates back to 1904 and the ship to 1924. We headed out to the mouth of the river, passing Dartmouth Castle the earliest parts dating back to the 1380s were built in response to a threat of a French attack. At this point we were 80 miles from the French Coast. Time to make a turn, it was a bit bumpy but soon in smooth waters as we sailed back passing Kingswear Castle which was completed in 1502 built to protect Dartmouth Harbour, one of the first purpose built artillery forts in Britain. Yet another Castle as we travelled along past Bayards Castle built between 1522 and 1536 containing heavy guns as the last line of defence against enemy ships that may have eluded Dartmouth and Kingswear Castles and the iron chain stretched across the estuary. We now passed many very expensive properties, one on the market for a mere £7.600 million, any offers? As we progressed up the river the splendid Britannia Royal Naval College came into view, where our late Queen met her future husband Prince Philip. We had a sighting of Braveheart a steam train travelling on the English Riviera line. The boat turned just below Greenway, Agatha Christie's old home to return to Dartmouth. Thank you to those able to give us support on this outing.

Indiana Jones and the Dial of Destiny

Here is the last Indiana Jones Epic, with 80 year old Harrison Ford taking on his role with all the vigour of nearly half a century ago.

The daredevil archaeologist races against time to retrieve a legendary “dial” that, if both halves are brought together, could change the course of history. Accompanied by his goddaughter, he soon finds himself squaring against Jürgen Voller, a former Nazi he had confronted during the War who now works for NASA. There are all the chases, the clashes, the crashes of a classic “Indi”. But while the critics have questioned a certain familiarity, it has achieved 88% from the Rotten Tomato’s audience and has been earning blockbuster revenue in the cinemas. A thoroughly enjoyable last fling.

NEW FLAGPOLE FOR IDE CHURCH

For some time the old church tower flagpole was left in pieces on the roof as it had become too rotten to be safely used. This was the subject of Parochial Church Council discussion for some time. Peter Cloke, who was due to become a church warden just after his tragic accident, was keen to replace the flagpole on the tower roof rather than abandon it or locate it elsewhere. Following the accident, Nick Bradley and Ian Campbell thought it would be a fitting gesture to complete the flagpole replacement project. With the full support of the PCC, a new aluminium pole and flag were purchased with Church funds and Nick and Ian set about erecting it which was not without its challenges as the photos may suggest.

After morning service on 3rd September we had the first flag break which was performed by Sue Cloke with Rev Mike Partridge in attendance. The congregation looked on, or up, from the church yard. It is good to see a flag flying again from the Tower. Interestingly, there is little direction from Church authorities as to what flag should be flown and when so the traditional flag of St George seemed like the best option. The plan is for it to fly most of the time except when strong windforecast (and someone remembers to take it down) as these considerably shorten the life of the flag. It may not always return quickly as someone has to climb the narrow tower spiral steps to raise or lower the flag. We hope that the village community will enjoy the return of a flag flying from the tower.
